Our special little spot

At the Tillerman, we love people and we like to make people feel at home. Nestled just outside the charming town of Bristol, we have an incredibly special place to host your intimate wedding.

We are an inn restored and reimagined from its 1790's bones and we're all about the small, meaningful details that create a sense of place.

Food

Food is everything to us.

Supporting local farmers, makers and cultivators is paramount to what we do as a business. Our wood fired oven is the heart of the restaurant, and our chef works intimately with the local farms and seasons to create and craft beautiful menus every week.

Dinner

Your dinner will include crisp roasted vegetables, greens from farms a stones throw away and sourdough pizzas (Roman-style in the barn). We work off our rotating menu, so we depend upon your trust to create inspired dishes. This means you don't have to make any decisions around food, and we promise you a fantastic dining experience.
